

Privacy Policy

This statement provides information how Schoo & Co. handles personal data.

Schoo & Co. respects your privacy and is committed to protect it.

The obtained personal data is carefully processed and stored in accordance with the laws and regulations of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

Which data is obtained?

Schoo & Co. only processes personal data, which is required for the performance of our services towards our principals. The personal data as processed is limited to constitute data, such as: name, address, contact details, phone numbers, e-mail addresses, position, company and/or employer. Other personal data such as authorizations, certifications, other identifying data, etc. will only be processed on request of our principals and/or as required in the related files or cases.

Schoo & Co. obtains the required personal data, partly from their principals, partly from other parties involved. Schoo & Co. and their surveyors will only request for personal data, which are considered relevant to our related files and/or cases.

How do we process personal data and to whom we share this personal data?

The obtained personal data of persons involved, will be processed in reports as drawn up by Schoo & Co. These reports will only be provided to our principals and to relevant interested parties involved.

These parties will be primarily responsible for the further processing of the used personal data. Information from our files will not be provided to third parties without the consent of the interested party(s) unless we are legally obliged to do so.

How do we store and protect the personal data?

The personal data is processed and stored in case-related files, mainly in digital files on the internal network. The personal data can also be stored as a hard-copy in the case-related files. All case-related files, and thus also the personal data recorded therein, will be destroyed after the legal retention period. The information contained in the database remains available for consultation. Access to this system is limited to the management of Schoo & Co. and to the surveyors involved. This system is appropriately secured by a combination of electronic and / or physical protective measures.

Your rights.

Those involved (i.e. principals) have the right to view their personal data at all times, the period during which they will be stored, to amend, change and / or delete their data and to submit a complaint to the supervisory authority (<https://autoriteitpersoonsgegevens.nl/>).
